

CELEBRATE YOUR RECOVERY WITH A QUILT SQUARE

BE A PART OF THE SOBRIETY QUILT

IGNATIA HALL ST. THOMAS HOSPITAL AKRON, OHIO
1939 - 2009

In 1939, Sister Ignatia, hospital administrator of St. Thomas Hospital, and Dr. Bob Smith, a skilled physician, surgeon and co-founding member of Alcoholics Anonymous along with Bill Wilson, made history when they admitted the first alcoholic patient to St. Thomas Hospital. It was then they established a methodology of medical treatment that includes the use of a 12-step recovery program and philosophy to treat mind, body and spirit. This methodology has since spread throughout hospitals globally making Summa Health System a world leader in the treatment of alcoholism.

The Sobriety Quilt of Ignatia Hall reminds us that we are all individuals on our own path to recovery, yet we are also united as one family under the 12-step program. Represent yourself or your group by purchasing a 5-inch square and be a part of this memorable quilt. Squares are $5 each and proceeds benefit the enduring work of Ignatia Hall.

The quilt will be on display starting on Founders' Day weekend (June 12-14, 2009) at St. Thomas Hospital in Akron, Ohio, in celebration of the 70th anniversary of Ignatia Hall.

Please fill out the submission form and mail it in with payment to be part of this experience.

The Sobriety Quilt of Ignatia Hall Submission Form

Please complete a separate submission form for each square you would like to purchase. You are welcome to make copies of this form, as well as combine payments from multiple forms.

Please indicate in 10 words or less what you would like on your 5-inch quilt square. We can only replicate names, dates, words, or numbers. We are not able to transfer pictures, religious objects, symbols, etc.
