

Use your education benefit and expand your possibilities.

At Summa Health, we understand that a fulfilling career means learning new things and building new skills.

We're excited to introduce Workforce Edge, an online platform that supports your learning and development — and makes it easier to go back to school.

How to get started:

1. Log in. Get started in minutes with an online account to unlock your education benefits.
2. Browse programs and find your program of interest.
3. Check your eligibility to find out if your program will be covered under your employer's education benefit policy.
4. Track your request on the Benefits Dashboard. If approved, apply and enroll in your program.

Explore programs at a network of leading universities.

Find ways to save on your education.

Simplify the process with an easy, intuitive online platform.

Get transparency on pricing and courses. And get clear guidance for every step on your education journey.
