

Nurse - Hannah, how are you today?

Patient - I'm still in a lot of pain.

Doctor - When did you last medicate her for pain?

Nurse - It was about an hour ago.

Doctor - An hour ago, and that didn't for you?

Nurse - It says we're in lockdown!

Doctor - Just go see what it is.

Patient - What's lockdown?

Doctor - Don't, don't worry about that, don't worry about that. We'll get something else ordered for your pain, and try to get you going, okay?

Patient - Okay.

Nurse - Oh my god! Oh my god! You need to go hide, go hide!

Doctor - What's wrong?

Nurse - There's a shooter on a the floor, he's on the floor. You need to go hide, please. Go hide!

Doctor - What, what?!

Nurse - Here, I need you to play dead! Play dead. Don't breathe, don't move. You, go in the bathroom! Please, go in the bathroom now! Oh my god.

Aggressor - The doctor killed her! Another one dead?! You kidding me? I can't take this place! They're all dead, I'm getting them all! Somebody in there? Is somebody in here?

Doctor - No, no please no! Sir!

Aggressor - Are you a doctor?

Doctor - You don't have to... no!

Aggressor - Are you a doctor? Are you a doctor?

Doctor - No, it's okay.

Aggressor - I said, are you a doctor?!
