Membership Notes

- Couple memberships are for spouses/partners or a parent and one dependent child*.
- Family memberships include spouses/partners and their dependent children* or a father/mother and their dependent children*.
 - *A dependent child must be a minimum of 15 years old (proof of age required). Dependent children are eligible to be on their parents' account until they are 30 years old and must live in the same household. When a child is no longer dependent, he/she will be moved onto their own membership and will be charged the appropriate membership rate. A joining fee will not be charged.
- Senior memberships are for those 62 and older.
- Members who are in an annual contract have the option of placing their membership on freeze for a minimum of 30 days.
 - Annual members who pay in full may place their account on freeze for an unlimited number of months: however, the minimum to place the account on freeze is one month. The contract renewal date will be extended the number of months the account is on freeze.
 - Annual members who are billed monthly may place their account on hold for a minimum of one month and a maximum of four months per calendar year. The contract renewal date will be extended the number of months the account is on freeze.
