What can they expect?

Expertise and Professionalism:
• Summa healthcare professionals have a national reputation for understanding, addressing and providing exceptional care for older adults.

New Horizons is housed within Summa Western Reserve Hospital; therefore:
• Emergency care is only minutes away
• Guest can have lab work, x-rays and other diagnostic services and therapies completed during working hours. They’ll be escorted to these on-site tests by a New Horizon staff member.
• Food services can meet the dietary requirements of each guest.

Compassion and Engagement:
• A full schedule of activities keeps guests active and involved and the staff is deeply invested in the personal relationships they have with each person for whom they provide care.

Respite and Support:
• Caring for those who need support is physically, emotionally and psychologically exhausting. Caregivers can take time to rejuvenate themselves knowing those they love are in good hands.

Help with Medications:
• Older adults may be confused about what medications to take and when. The medical staff can assist in ensuring patients stay on schedule with their medications.

Convenience:
• Hours are Monday – Friday, 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.
• Guests may stay one hour or all day, attend one, two, three, four or five days per week.
